Important FAQs

Can I study only from the instructor's slides?

Definitely no, you need to study from the assigned textbook and other online resources.

Do I need to memorize or contemplate studied concepts?
You need to memorize and understand what you memorize.

Exam Style?

Everything is expected so prepare for the worst.

Exam Time/Date?

Will be determined soon.

I am graduating this semester, Will I fail?

Definitely, yes!

I am majoring in biomedical/power/civil/telecommunication engineering and this is a computer engineering course?
A computer engineer is not better than you, and you may end up needing this course way more than the computer engineer!

I have spent a lot of effort on this course and I have taught my colleagues but my grades are low
You spent a lot of effort, you taught your colleagues and you grades are very low! this is a contradiction! You need to rethink the whole studying process*
